EXPLANATION OF COMMUNITY SUPERVISION REVOCATION RIGHTS

I. Now comes the Defendant herein, in person, WITH/WITHOUT an attorney and is advised of the following:

A) You have the right to remain silent and not make any statement at all and that any statement you make may be used as evidence against you at trial; you have the right to have a lawyer present to advise you prior to and during any questioning and if you are unable to employ a lawyer you have the right to have a lawyer appointed to advise you in Court in connection with this case; you have the right to see and read and understand the allegations brought against you by the State in either the Application to Revoke Community Supervision or the Application to Proceed to Final Adjudication.

B) The Court is not bound by any promises, agreements of recommendations of anyone in regard to the outcome of this hearing;

C) The Court, at the conclusion of the evidence, has the power to find the allegations true or not true, regardless of the plea that you make to the allegations. If you are still within the term of Community Supervision the Court may have the power to extend the term of Community Supervision or the assessment of fine or both or the Court may revoke your Community Supervision, and if you are on Deferred Adjudication, the Court may place you on regular Community Supervision or the Court may place you in jail for a period of up to 90 days and if you meet certain legal criteria the Court may have the power to place you back on Community Supervision. The Court, at the conclusion of the evidence, also has the right, if there is a finding that the allegations are true, to place you in jail for a period of time up to the possible maximum jail sentence listed above.

REQUEST TO PROCEED

Now comes the Defendant, after being advised of the Defendants rights, and states to the Court the following:

A. The Defendant states, after being advised of the Defendants rights, the Defendant freely, intelligently, and voluntarily DOES/DOES NOT give up the Defendant's right to have an attorney to represent the Defendant, and the Defendant states that the Defendant understands the allegations against the Defendant. The Defendant states that the Defendant waives the reading of the allegations and the Defendant represents to the court that the Defendant desires to enter a plea of :

True to the allegations in paragraph/s _____ of the State's application

Not True to the allegations in paragraph/s _____ of the State's application

Defendant represents to the court that the defendant is the same person placed on Community Supervision by the court in this cause and the Defendant agrees to stipulate that the evidence to be presented to the court about paragraph/s _____ of the State's application is true.

B. The Defendant hereby DOES/DOES NOT waive the Defendant's right to present witnesses in this case and DOES/DOES NOT demand that this case be submitted to the court on all issues of law and fact and that the court immediately proceed with this case
